OVERVIEW

David graduated from Suffolk University Law School and was awarded the prestigious Jurisprudence Award for his exceptional performance in the course of Criminal Law. David was also a distinguished member of the Phi Delta Phi International Legal Honor Society and served as a Staff Member and Content Editor for the Journal for High Technology Law, demonstrating his passion for legal research and scholarship.

David gained practical experience by interning with the Honorable Kevin R. Connolly at the Plymouth County Probate and Family Court. David also interned at multiple law firms focusing on condominium law, business litigation and intellectual property law. Additionally, he worked on matters related to probate and family law, trusts and estates, and personal injury law.

At Allcock & Marcus, David will be a valuable member of our Condominium Collection Team. He will also work on general and transactional matters and litigation matters, providing well-rounded legal support to our clients.

David describes himself as an avid skier, an average golfer, and a passionate New England Patriots fan.
